I'm a Web Developer with +5 years of experience. I love to create beautiful and functional websites.

EXPERIENCE

2020 – CURENT

UI DEVELOPER, YASH TECHNOLOGIES, PUNE

I am currently working as a Micro Frontend developer. I work on React, Vue, and Node.

My main responsibility is to make design system, reusable components with Storybook, write End-to-End with Cypress & unit test cases with Jest.

My other responsibilities are to make common function that will be used by other developers, creating & managing micro frontends, error handling with Sentry.

2017 – 2020

SOFTWARE ENGINEER, DIGITAL PIXEL, PUNE

I started as a fresher here. After training, my responsibilities were to make React components, migrate from Spring 4 to Spring 5, maintain code integrity, handle authentication for client's project with Java 8 and Spring framework.

PROJECTS

aniketicloud-pizza.vercel.app

SLICKS SLICES: React, Node, Gatsby, REST + GraphQL, Sanity

- I built a website for a local pizza joint called Slick's Slices.
- The site includes everything you'd run into in building a website today and is meant to be a nice reference for the sites.
- Some of the things I did in this project are:

Progressive Images	Scoped CSS	Pagination	Emailing of Order
Tags	Filtering	SEO + Meta Tags	Building
Sourcing Data from a CMS and REST API	Dynamically Generated pages	Order Form Client side	Deployment - Hosting

MICRO FRONTENDS: Vue, React, Typescript, Micro frontend architecture, Jest, Cypress

- Modern big applications require separating things so people can work independently. This app is all about Micro Frontend architecture.
- Three separate micro frontends (one in Vue, one in React and other in Typescript) connect together.
- These apps can be developed and deployed independently. Some functionality is shared within apps.
- One can change the frontend framework to any other framework in future.
